Overnight closures on Pacific Coast Highway (State Route 1) for pavement work

At least one lane will remain open in both directions at all times

MALIBU – The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) announced plans to close lanes on portions of Pacific Coast Highway (PCH or State Route 1) in both directions this week to repair asphalt concrete edges inside the lane shoulders.

The closures are along an approximately 16-mile stretch of PCH, between Cross Creek Road and Leo Carrillo State Beach in the city of Malibu.

On Wednesday, October 17 from 7 p.m. until 6 a.m. the following closures will be in place:

- One northbound lane of PCH from Cross Creek Road to Puerco Canyon Road
- One northbound lane of PCH from Escondido Road to Trancas Canyon Road
- One southbound lane of PCH from Leo Carrillo State Beach to Kanan Dume Road

At least one lane in each direction will be open at all times. The closures are weather permitting and subject to change.

All American Asphalt of Corona, Calif. is the contractor.

Caltrans reminds drivers to be “Work Zone Alert.”
